DETAILED ACTION

This is a response to the amendment filed 10/17/2005. Claims 1-12 are pending and are under examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1 and 6, the recitation of “the pulse is a gated version of the divided-by-N clock signal” is indefinite because it is unclear what the applicant means by gated version. Therefore, the metes and bounds of the claim can not be determined.

Claims 2-5 and 7-12 are indefinite because of the technical deficiencies of claims 1 and 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 and 6-8 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stern et al. (USP 5,150,386).

Art Unit: 2816

128; 122, 130; 124, 132), wherein an nth unit cell (122, 130) generates a pulse (C3) in response to a divided by N clock signal (divided by 4 clock 32), a signal output from (n-1)th unit cell (Q output of 128), and a signal output from (n+1)th unit cell (Q output of 132), wherein the pulse is a gated version of the divided-by-N clock signal (the gated version, insofar as understood, is interpreted to be a representation. Column 3, line 55-67, column 4, lines 1-30 describes the pulse is a representation of the phase difference of the clock signal 28 and the clock in 16) as called for in claim 1.

Regarding claims 2 and 6-7, the output signal pulse (C1-C4) having the same pulse width as the divided by 4 clock 32.

Regarding claims 3 and 8, the phase of output pulse C2 and C4 are changed with a time difference (phase shifted).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 4-5 and 9-12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. In this regard, applicant's cited prior art has been carefully considered.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
